

LET THE GREAT BIG WORLD KEEP TURNING (1)

— If I knew that someone cared for me, I'd let the world go by,
 Someone who was true as true could be, I'd never want to sigh;
 What would I give to-day, just to hear someone softly say:

LET THE GREAT BIG WORLD KEEP TURNING (2)

— Let the great big world keep turning, never mind if I've got you
 For I only know that I want you so, and there's no one else will do;
 You have simply set me yearning, and for ever I'll be true,
 Let the great big world keep on turning round, now I've found someone like you.

LET THE GREAT BIG WORLD KEEP TURNING (3)

— Love, they say, must come to one and all of high and low degree,
 Come what may, I'm waiting for the call, it holds no fears for me;
 Maybe the day is near when the thought of my heart I'll hear.

It's a great big shame,
 And if she belonged to me,
 I'd let her know who's who;
 Smacking at a fellow who is six foot three,
 And her only four foot two.
